

French Chateau In Calabasas, CA

After admiring a European-style home in Florida that interior designer and general contractor Gail Claridge built for her daughter Linda Hogan, the homeowners of this 10-acre estate just north of Los Angeles tapped Gail to fashion their magnificent French chateau. With panoramic vistas of the Santa Monica Mountains, this residence boasts a hand-carved marble tub in the master bath and a two-story garden room. Other lavish details include three ponds, a pavilion for outdoor entertaining, infinity pool and caretaker's cottage.
