

Los Angeles Times

HOME

Comcast CEO sells Marina del Rey condo

By Lauren Beale, Los Angeles Times

September 1, 2010 1:16 p.m.

Comcast Entertainment Group president and chief executive Ted Harbert has sold a condominium in the Azzurra high-rise in Marina del Rey for $1.63 million.

The corner unit offers unobstructed north and south views of the marina, the Santa Monica Mountains and the Malibu coastline. It has an open floor plan, two balconies, three bedrooms, three bathrooms and 2,171 square feet of living space.

The 19-story building, built in 2003, is known for its art collection. Paintings, sculptures and photographs from artists including Andy Warhol, Ed Ruscha and Roy Lichtenstein adorn the lobby and other public areas.

Harbert, 55, purchased the condo in 2006 for $2.1 million, according to public records.

Ian L. Brooks of Rodeo Realty represented the buyer.

lauren.beale@latimes.com

Copyright © 2010. Los Angeles Times